

Review: Units 1 to 3

77

- I.
1. They will indeed send gold either to the council or to the assembly so that the people (ὁ δῆμος) will stop the war.
 2. Homer has taught the souls of men with skill, a gift of the gods, but his brother [has taught them] with deeds.
 3. Did you (p.) order your friends to sacrifice to the goddesses before the war so that they would protect the country well? (aor. ind. ὅπως pres. opt.)
 4. into the market place, through the country, out of the houses, instead of gold, away from the island, out of the market place, on account of (the) virtue, in the market place, on the island, about words, around the house, concerning war, from Homer, with Homer, to Homer, before the battle, of six messengers
 5. That he might not write books for foreigners, you had sent a wreath to beloved Homer. (ὥς aor. opt., plup. ind.)
 6. The gifts from the gods instructed men. For they were sacrificing to the gods.
 7. Oh man, will you not teach your brother the art?
 8. You will order your friend to send gifts both to the gods and to men.

II.

τοὺς ἐν τῇ νήσου ἀνθρώπους κεκελεύκαμεν χρυσόν τε καὶ στεφάνους πέμψαι ὅπως τοῦ ἀδελφοῦς λόγοις τὴν τοῦ πολέμου τέχνην παιδεύωμεν. || [έκελεύσαμεν → παιδεύοιμεν/παιδεύαιμεν]